ABOUT Co3 (pron. Koh-three)

Co3's purpose is to inspire and enrich lives through contemporary dance by delivering sector leading, contemporary performance and engagement programs for the people of Western Australia, Australia and beyond. Founded in 2015, the company's vision is to be a leading contemporary dance company, progressing the boundaries of the art form, reaching and engaging new audiences and communities and uniquely developing our dancers. By 2030, we aspire to be valued regionally, connected nationally and engaged internationally.

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST SOUGHT

Co3 Contemporary Dance is always interested in attracting new voices to join in the strategic and governance conversations of the Board and would like to expand and diversify our database of potential candidates. If you think you'd like to explore being a part of Co3's governance team, please get in touch.

Never been in an NED/governance role before? We'd still like to hear from you. The Board is dedicated to improving pathways and accessibility to governance roles in the NFP sector and is currently developing an internal mentoring support program as well as identifying both formal and informal Director Pathways programs to support new entrants. We'd welcome your suggestions on the types of support you would find most valuable.

ABOUT THE ROLE

The role requires attendance at approximately eight board meetings and serving on at least one board committee per year. Directors are also requested to attend performances, and fundraising and supporter events throughout the year.

Applicants must be able to demonstrate an understanding of a director's role and their legal, ethical, fiduciary and financial responsibilities. In addition, we are seeking people who uphold and embody Co3's core values: Excellence, Integrity and Accountability, Sustainable Practices, Entrepreneurial Spirit, and Transformation.

Passion for the arts, and contemporary dance in particular, will be highly regarded.

Diversity & Inclusion: Co3 Contemporary Dance is an inclusive and safe environment committed to diversity in our teams, stories, and operations. We encourage applications from all individuals regardless of age, sex, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, or disability.

To register your interest, please send your Curriculum Vitae and a statement no more than two (2) pages, outlining your suitability to Chair@co3.org.au.
